

I am writing to voice my concern about the upcoming proceeding initiated by the Consumer Bankers Association as it regards Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. I strongly support a citizen's right to restrict a telemarketer's access to their privacy. I am requesting that you refuse the CBA's challenge to the law. As a former telemarketer myself, I know how irritating these unsolicited calls can be. Thank you for your attention in this matter.